

WHO WE ARE

There is a little boy with developmental disabilities who has always wanted to hit it out of the park like his favorite player. There is a young woman who always wanted to challenge herself at the plate and laugh with friends on a warm summer night. Challenger Baseball, the largest special needs league in the country, makes these dreams come true.

Syracuse Challenger Baseball is the largest single-district Little League International Challenger Baseball program for children and adults with special needs in the country. Our goal is to create friendships among players, parents and volunteers through the game of baseball. The league is free for all players. Currently, we serve over 200 players. Our players are children as young as four years old and our oldest player is 65 years old. Our teams are divided into three divisions.

The Junior Division is for players under 15 years old, our Adult Division is open to players 15 years and older and our Senior Division is open to players who would like to play a more competitive game of baseball. At every game, every player gets up to bat and stays until they have gotten their hit. All players in the outfield run to catch the many balls that are thrown out across the infield and outfield. In the Senior Division players are using more typical baseball rules where they can strike out and can catch a fly ball and make an out.

Each player receives a free hat and jersey and is celebrated at a free end-of-year event for the team and their families. The highlight of the event is each player is called on stage to receive a trophy from their coach. For children who have never played a team sport, this trophy symbolizes the accomplishments and friendships they have made over the summer. The league is run entirely by volunteers including coaches, assistants, league directors, and an all-volunteer board of directors.

This year, we're hoping you will bring your heart and resources to our league so we can continue to grow and welcome the largest free gathering of special needs players in the country.
